Regular Business:

Approval of August 8, 2023 Meeting Minutes

Approved by: Rachel Dosch      Second: Jenika Sammons

Approval of August 2023 Financial Report

Approved by: Keith Sammons      Second: Heather Nunn

Old Business:

- Business Improvement Awards

Stephanie Eney has printed awards for both Messy Apron and Billman's Hardware to be presented in October. Rachel and Heather will present to the businesses.

- Board of Directors

New member nomination for Larry Schwindt was made and carried by all directors present.

- Member Monday

No submissions have been received. Stockman Bank will be highlighted next. Rachel will begin pulling businesses to showcase.

- Reimagine Rural

The MSU Extension and Reimagining group has received another grant to go towards the project from Glacier Country Tourism and held an open forum meeting for the community. There was a good turnout for attendees at that meeting.

- Building Mural Funds

Mural is complete and has been well received.

- Holiday Bazaar

64 vendors have signed up to date. Sign up sheet will be sent out for volunteers and the "to do" list will be split and assigned.

New Business:

- Growth Policy Committee

Discussion postponed at this time. Kim Winchell was not present to discuss.

- Insurance Bid Mountain Front Insurance

This was reviewed and signed for renewal. No changes were made, and no change in cost.

- Parade of Lights

Rachel will post a survey on Facebook to determine if this will be held on 12/1 or 12/2.

- Shop Cut Bank

Stephanie to organize and the directors will place boxes at local businesses.

- Cut Bank Movie Premier

It was shared with the group that an invitation was extended to the Chamber so those who wish to attend are welcome to do so. Rachel will respond to the email and confirm attendance.

- Welcome Committee

There are 4 bags left at City Hall. Stephanie and Jenika will order supplies and a “stuffing party” will be scheduled. Updated bags will be ordered as will with updated design.
